Hachnasat Orchim means welcoming the stranger. In the tradition of welcoming both old friends and meeting new ones, we will be mixing tables. If you want to sit with a friend, sister or mother let us know their names, but no more than four total please (send names and payments for all seating requests together). Open seating available or seat reservations accepted (enclose list with check) for complete parties of TEN only. Register on-line at www.ihcindy.org. In the spirit of Tikkun Olam, please bring women's personal products for Popsie's Pantry. Financial donations are also accepted.
