Chai Mitzvah: Jewish Wisdom on Personal Relationships

Wednesdays 7:00—8:00pm on 2/6, 2/13, 2/20, 2/27 & 3/6

What does 3000 years of tradition have to say about how to deal with difficult relationships? In what way can we take the wisdom of our culture to heart and in our own lives? What does it mean to live Jewishly and spiritually? We will explore these topics, Jewish ethical teachings called mussar together. Taught by David Heilbron. Please register by January 30th.

The ABCs of Being Jewish (Basic Judaism)

Sundays 9:30—10:30am on 3/24, 3/31, 4/7 & 4/14

What does it mean to be part of a synagogue and larger Jewish community? What is Jewish food and culture? Through classroom conversation and guest speakers we will investigate practical day-to-day questions and discuss the beauty, depth and complexity of Jewish Living. Taught by Rabbi Scott Fox. Please register by March 17th.

Torah Talk

Wednesdays 9:15-10:30am. Check the IHC calendar for dates .

An informal, accessible, and interactive opportunity for adults of all levels of learning to discuss and study Judaism and its texts. Even if you have never attended Torah study, each session stands alone as a wonderful learning opportunity. Coffee is provided and volunteers bring snacks. Sponsored by Sisterhood. Discussion is led by Rabbi Brett Krichiver (Norm Sider will lead during Rabbi's sabbatical.) For more information and to be included on the email list, contact Sharon Baldwin at indybaldwin@hotmail.com.

Tanakh (Hebrew Bible) Study

Saturdays 9:00—10:00am

A weekly study group exploring the Tanakh from a religious, literary and socio-historical perspective, seeking greater insight into this age-old, yet timeless, text. Coffee is provided and volunteers bring snacks. IHC clergy leads the weekly discussion. All are encouraged to stay for our 10:30am Shabbat service.

IHC Community Choir

Wednesdays 7:00-8:30pm. Check the IHC calendar for dates .

Have you always wanted to sing in a choir but never worked up the courage to do it? Now is your chance to learn by joining our IHC Community Choir. We are working towards leading the congregation in worship and are learning choral singing basics together. No experience? No problem. Cantor Aviva Marer will walk you through how to achieve the best sound while having a great time! Open to IHC members only, please.

All classes are free for IHC members and open to the community with a nominal fee for non-members. Please pre-register for the Chai Mitzvah and Basic Judaism classes by visiting the Sign Up Genius section at ihcindy.org or by calling Barbara at 317.255-6647, extension 219. Come when you can to Torah Talk & Tanakh Study. Just never stop learning.
